

...to encourage plain
...and integrity and abstention
...against drink, dissipation
...or profane literature, and
...to supply that which is profitable.
...the frequent reading of scripture

Friends are clear of giving aid to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a means in the preparation of food. They also abstain from such liquors as are sold, and also from any other thing which has a tendency to excite the passions or other vices.

None of our members appear to begin with at this time.

Friends maintain a faithful testimony in favor of a free school ministry, setting up a fine qualification for its continuance.

Most Friends are careful to live within their means, and to avoid indulging themselves in habits beyond their ability to

...and fulfilling their obligations
Eight

Friends maintain a faithful testimony in favor of peace and order in the church. They discourage all forms of dissipation and other vices.

They have a First-day School under the care of our meeting. No Young Friends Associations nor organized Philanthropic labor is conducted by our meeting.

Bar is taken. The Recorder will give statistics Eleventh

No new meetings have been established some discontinued. Exchange in time of holding meeting

No children in membership yet to attend school taught by Friends.

Then adjourns
Kirk Brown