The subject of our lesson to-day is Stoicly There are present 15 in all. After an interesting lesson school was closed.
#2nd mo 14th 1902.

School was opened by roll call, after which was read a portion of the scripture by the assistant Supt.

Samuel D. Eves not being present, his class was taught by R. Orlando Way.

Lines concerning our departed friend "Mamie Hassler" were read, school closed in silence.

They were as follows,

Our hearts have been deeply saddened by the loss of one whom we had much loved.

Our departed friend will be missed in the home, meeting, First day school and community, more than we realize.

The seat occupied by a hopeful youth a few weeks ago, is now vacant never again to be filled by her presence, which was made even more precious by her joining in membership with us.

As sect., in our First Day school she was ever willing to perform her duty, and if not entirely successful at first she fully adopted the maxim try, try again.

A beautiful element of her character which shone out plainly was cheerfulness, and being naturally happy and joyous, as well as open hearted to all, she made life brighter for those about her.

Let us cherish the memory of one who has gone to rest, and take for example the noble traits of her life.
