

Believing that God doeth all things well,

Dear as thou wast, and justly dear,

He would not weep for thee;
One thought shall check the starting tear
It is that thou art free.

And thus shall faith's consoling power,
The tears of love restrain

O, who that saw thy parting hour
Could wish thee here again?

Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
O, may such grace on us be shed,
And make our end like thine.
