

the presence of the secretary but the lesson has been used by those present each day.

6-16. The sec - out - just to R. O. Way is here + a cl - at - Sept - & Dec - There are not many present to day there are 12 present in all.
This is a very fine day. There is to be children's day at - Centre Line. to day. at M. E. C.

7-28 A very fine day. The officers & teachers all present, 18 in attendance.
The lesson lesson not having reached yet Bibles are used today.

8/3 There are present 19 - very fine day
Sept & Secretary not present.
This is preparative meeting.

8/10 Sept & Sec - not present R. O. Way is present. There are a goodly number present. Edith Cleaver & daughter Inman are with us to day. - R. O. Way

8-18 A very fine clear day with good air.
Only 12 persons present and no lesson leave have been received yet and so the lesson is a Bible reading.

8-25 A cool pleasant day with 18 persons present. The lesson today was the 1st Chapter of Ephesians, the teaching being love and the doing of it out.
The subject selected for discussion at the Quarterly Firstday School Associating to be held 19th 7th 1907 is How can we create a greater interest in our Firstday School.

9-1 A very fine day with 22 persons present, 17 friends and 5 firstday friends. To attend our approaching Firstday School Association we appointed Verma H. Way, Lydia Inereta Way, Margaretta Way, Anna Northammar, Mrs. W. H. Way and George Northammar. As literary delegates were appointed George H. Fisher, Mrs. H. Way, Verma H. Way, Anna Northammar, Lura Way & Lydia L. Way and George Northammar.