Very fine day The Secretary is not present to day - This is yearly meeting first day at Baltimore. Enroute Mr. May - went from this place. There is a smaller company of us to day than usual - there only 7 present - to day 6 members + 1 not member - The lesson is Ezekiel - Then an 3 more members came in - so we have 10 in all - 3 more came in so we have 13 all 11-1-1908.

Our school is about as large as usual today. The Supt. is present and opened the school by reading a chapter.

11-15-1908.

Supt. opened school by reading the 36 Psalm. The day is cloudy. There are fourteen present today twelve of whom are members and two not. After the lesson school adjourned. I turned to the adjournment - L. M. May gave an account of U. M.

The Secretary is not present to day - there are 6 present - to day. All are members Very fine day. Some clouds. There is a call to have the Library sent to James D. Wall - Esampian. So we will have to arrange for the same. Our number seems small but we feel none the less interested in our work. There is some sickness in some families. is the greatest reason.
