

10-3-09

School opened by Suft. reading the 15th chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans. There are 36 persons present.

Robert A. May was appointed as a delegate to the First Day School Association at Baltimore.

10-10-09

School opened by Suft. reading part of 1st of Romans. and well attended.

10-17-09

Opened this morning by Warline W. May reading a chapter from the book of Proverbs. Our regular Trinitarian articles not having arrived we are using the Comprehensive quarterly published by Daince & Co. which we are using for a trial.

10-24-09

Our School was opened this damp morning by Rob. May reading the first twelve verses of the 25th chapt. of Acts a reference on the Comprehensive Quarterly.

In the adult class of 19 persons a very interesting discussion, which certainly was useful, was created on the lesson.

It was decided we would use the Comprehensive Quarterly entirely for the adult class.

10-31-09

We have a very interesting First-Day School this beautiful morning. Opened by Superintendent reading part of Acts 27 chapt.
