

Our Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Ministers and Elders held at Lombard Street the City of Baltimore the 29th of 10th Mo. 1887

From written reports received from all the Quarterly Meetings excepting Nottingham it appeared that Samuel H. Rice and others were appointed to attend this meeting as representatives who were all present but four; for the absence of these reasons were given.

The assistant clerk not being present Amos B. Branson was appointed to serve in that capacity at this session.

The following named Friends were in attendance with us from other Yearly Meetings and produced Certificates of Unity from their respective Meetings viz Sunderland P. Gardner Pa. minister, and Amilla H.
Gardner his wife, a member.
Thomas Foulke, David Newcomb,

Isaac Hicks all ministers, Louise J. Roberts a minister, Catherine S. Kennedy her companion, Annie S. Githen, a minister and Robert of Jannet an Elder, her companion, Helen Fildcroft a minister and Sarah B. Flet-craft, his companion, and Margaretta Walton a minister.

The company of these friends as well as some others without minutes was very acceptable to us.

Having entered into an examination of the state of our branch of the society and proceeded as far as the first query, during which much valuable counsel was given that we be faithful in the attendance of all our meetings the meeting adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The representatives were deserted to propose to next month
