

4th Aug

Ministers and Elders are good examples in uprightness, temperance, and moderation. And some care appears to be used to educate their families in plainness of dress and simplicity of manners becoming our religious profession.

With feelings of thankfulness to the Divine Father for the evidence of his presence amongst us as manifested in the counsels of those sent by Him, the meeting adjourned to meet at the usual time next year if so permitted.

At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Ministers and Elders held on Asquith Street in the City of Baltimore
10th mo 27th 1888

The clerk not being present W. W. Moore was appointed for the session and Hannah Q. Wright to fill the place of the assessor who was also unavoidably absent.

From written reports received from our several Quarterly Meetings it appears the following named Friends were appointed representatives Edward Eldridge and others, when upon being called were found to be present except 8 for the absence of 3 a satisfactory reason was assigned -