

A Testimony from Deer Creek Monthly Meeting concerning our dear Friend Mary Cox deceased.

She was born at Egham-hith in Great-Brittain, and was educated in the profession of the Church of England. In her youthful days She was much inclined to the gailies and fashions of the times; and in that situation was married to our late deceased friend William Cox, who soon after removed to this country and settled within the verge of this meeting; He being a diligent attender thereof she gave up to accompany him, and became convinced of the principle of Truth as professed by Friends, being sometime after recieved amongst them, she

She became an exemplary member.
About the thirtyninth year of her age she was called to the Ministry and for a number of years her words were few and pathetic, she, however, grew in her gift, and with the concurrence of her friends, visited many meetings in the neighbouring provinces; and a few years back a general one in company with our friend Mary Husband, to friends in the lower parts of Maryland and Virginia: And so great was her Zeal for the promotion of Truth, notwithstanding her age and impaired state of health, (her companions doubting her ability to perform) she gave up to travel to those remote Meetings, over the Allegany mountains, and made a general visit to Friends there, often having meetings also among those of other Societies, and was at times enabled