

Read in Baltimore Quarterly Meeting 4th of the 2nd mo 1792. and referred to the meeting for sufferings.

John Cox Clk

The Memorial of Gunpowder Monthly Meeting concerning our friend Hannah Matthews, an Elder, late wife of Oliver Matthews

She was a diligent attender of Meetings for worship and discipline, was often employed in the services of the Church, and her innocent, quiet deportment rendered those services acceptable.

She was at times favoured with a word of encouragement to the humble travellers, and her heart as well as house was open to receive her friends

She divers times traveled as a companion to friends engaged in the Ministry, was frequently employed in visiting