A Memorial from Westland Monthly Meeting, in Washington County Pennsylvania concerning William Wilson.

He was born in Kent County, on Delaware, in the year 1739, and was received into membership with friends at Duck-Creek monthly Meeting, where he continued until the year 1781. When he removed and settled with his family within within the verge of a meeting held at Westland, being the only one then held West of the Allegheny Mountain. He was by Certificate well recommended to Hope-well Monthly Meeting, and a few years after, by that meeting appointed to the Station of an Elder, in which he was preserved an example of plainness and humility.

He manifested a religious care for the support of good order among the few friends then settled in these parts, & after meetings for Discipline were established, he was very servicable in them, which, with other meetings he diligently attended, a good example in bringing his family with him, careful not to let his outward affairs hinder him from what he believed to be his religious duty, yet was industrious & careful in providing for the necessary support of his family.

Toward the latter end of the 6th Mo. 1795. he was taken ill of a nervous disorder, and on the 26th of the same month (tho!
