Some account of the last sickness, expressions, and Death of Ruth Walton, wife of Benjamin Walton, of Pike run Township, Washington County and State of Pennsylvania. —

She was confined about six Months with a complication of Painful Disorders, which she endeavour'd to bear with patience.

In the fore part of her sickness she expressed to some Friends, who had a favoured opportunity with her and family; a concern which had often been on her mind, and especially of late, that Friends might transact their Church business in the life, and avoid all
