

The Testimony, of Miami Quarterly Meeting in the State of Ohio, concerning John Simpson deceased.

As the evening of the day of this our beloved friend was closed, in this part of the country, we apprehend it proper for us to give some account of his Labour and services, during the short period of his residence within the limits of this Quarter.

After his arrival among us, in the 8th Month 1810, and until nearly the conclusion of the following winter, he attended many meetings among friends, and also appointed meetings among other people, wherein he was made a channel through which flowed freely much salutary counsel and encouragement. In the 3rd Month following he was taken with a severe illness, but recovered so as to be enabled to attend our Quarterly Meeting, in the 5th Month though under considerable bodily indisposition.

On first day night the 16th of the 6th Month he uttered the following supplication: "Most Righteous Father, thou knowest that a tried remnant yet continue to love thee more than all things, be pleased, therefore, to go with them and support them through the heights and through the depths, and the many trials that may be allotted to their portion. And enable them, O Righteous Father, in every dispensation of thy love, in the sincerity of
