

Baltimore, 11 Mo. 11 1876

To Thomas King

Correspondent of the "Committee to promote the Religious and Educational interests of our Meetings and Members," for Deer Creek Meeting.

The following Minute was adopted by Baltimore Yearly Meeting held this year:

"The Report of the Committee to visit our Subordinate Meetings was read.
The Committee is now released. In connection with this report the Meeting has been introduced into a deep concern for the welfare, and religious and educational interests of our members in our various Meetings; and it is concluded to appoint a special Committee for this important service, to be called 'the Committee to promote the Religious and Educational interests of our Meetings and Members.'"

In order to carry out this concern of the Yearly Meeting, the Executive Committee have prepared the annexed list of questions to ascertain, as far as possible, the present state of our various Meetings. It is important that the answers should be accurate so as to give a correct account. Please return the list with the answers filled out, so it may reach the Secretary not later than 12 Mo. 1 1876

By direction of the Committee,

Allen C Thomas

Secretary.
