life and numbers, that for a long while there was no one to take much interest in the affairs of the Church, and consequently the old record was lost, and none of our friends know what has become of it; the report last year was made out from memory and was liable to be incorrect. This year we have had the names of all of our members recorded in a book prepared for the purpose, the report this year was therefore taken from it and is correct, and the discrepancy is in last year's report.

I suppose there will be ten or twelve from this mo. Mtg., to attend the Yearly Mtg. can't tell exactly as some are undecided about going. I think it very doubtful about my coming, as the amt. I spend for that will take from my family that much of the necessities of life. Money never has been so scarce with me before since I have been keeping house. It is hard for me to give up the idea of going. It is always such a treat to me to attend Gr Mtg., but if it were right for me to go I believe the Master would provide a way. I was very sorry to hear of thy brother's affliction - hope she will recover from it & have the use of her limb again soon - am glad you have the assistance of J. B. Brantwaite. It is such a privilege to have such excellent friends with us, I hope you will all remember me in your prayers, that I may be fitted for the work the Master has for me to do.
