We therefore propose, however painful and affecting to our feelings the necessity may be, that the yearly Meeting dissolve and discontinue these Quarterly Meetings, and all the Meetings subordinate to them. That the members who are within the compass of ^{meeting} Birmingham quarterly be considered as belonging to Nottingham Quarterly Meeting and be held accountable to and under their notice and care; and that the members within the compass of Fairlee Quarter be considered as belonging to Baltimore Quarterly Meeting and be held accountable to and under their notice and care. We further propose that the Yearly ^{Meeting} appoint a committee to be in connexion with committees appointed by these quarters respectively, whose duty it shall be to extend their labours and assistance to meetings or to individuals within the compass of the quarters: and that full liberty be given to them to collect together and settle individuals who may be united to us, whether in the relation of Meetings for Worship or for Discipline, as the case may require, and that the due exercise of our precious and invaluable discipline may be carefully and faithfully maintained in every branch of the Yearly Meeting.
