The joint Committee of men and women Friends to extend such advice and assistance to our subordinate meetings, as way may open for and ability be received to impart; made the following report— which was satisfactory; and after a time of deliberation, it was concluded to continue the committee. They are directed to report to next Yearly Meeting.

At the Yearly Meeting;

The Committee continued last year to render advice and assistance to our subordinate meetings, as way might open for it, report— that during the past year a part of our number attended Yearly Meeting, Creek Quarterly Meeting held at Bellefonte, and the meetings constituting it; the Half Yearly Meeting of Virginia, held at Black Creek; Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, held at Hopewell; and Nottingham Quarterly Meeting. The business which came before these Meetings was satisfactorily conducted, and such advice and assistance was rendered as ability was given to impart.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

John Scott,
Amos Thomas,
Dorothy Hopkings,
Josiah Jannet.

The Committee to prepare an essay of an address to be placed on the certificates and Minutes of brethren and sisters attending this meeting from within the limits of other Yearly Meetings, produced one, which was approved, and the Clerks were directed to insert them accordingly.

The following Friends were appointed to nominate at a future sitting a Friend to serve as one of the correspondents of this Meeting, in the place of Daniel Cobb, some time since deceased; also a Friend to serve as one of the correspondents of Baltimore Monthly Meeting, in the place of William Proctor who requests to be released on account of bodily infirmity, viz: John Scott, Hugh Balderson, and Nathaniel C. Crenshaw. And then adjourned to 3 o'clock ^{improved} this afternoon.

24th of the month and 5th of the week

Near the time adjourned to Friends met.

The Friends appointed at a former sitting to have the London General Epistle reprinted for distribution, reported that the service had been completed with.

The Committee appointed at a former sitting to nominate a Friend to serve as one of the correspondents of the Yearly Meeting reported the name of Richard H. Thomas, which was admitted with, and he appointed to the service. And for correspondent to Baltimore Monthly Meeting, Joseph King, Jr., which was admitted with, and he appointed accordingly.

The Committee set apart at a former sitting produced essays of Epistles to the Yearly Meetings of London & Dublin and to those on this Continent, which were read and approved.

The Clerk is directed to transcribe, sign and forward them.

Having, through the several sittings of this Yearly Meeting, been mercifully favored, as we humbly believe, with a fresh extension of help in conducting the weighty affairs of the Church which have come before us, enabling us to transact them in harmony and love, with hearts devoutly thankful for the favor, the Meeting concluded to meet at the usual time next year, if the Lord permit.

Richard H. Thomas

Clerk to the Meeting this year.
