scattered, claiming the sympathy and help of Friends.
A part of our Committee visited Bellefonte and attended the Meeting for worship, held on first-day the 28th of 8th month to satisfaction. They also attended the Quarterly Meeting held at Sunning's Creek, on 5th day 8th month 1st, the business of the Meeting was conducted to satisfaction, and they made satisfactory visits to most of the families, both at Bellefonte and Sunning's Creek.

Baltimore, 10th month 25th, 1852.

Under a renewed feeling, at this time, we trust of the obligation resting upon this Yearly Meeting towards its members and subordinate Meetings, some of which are small and their members widely scattered, it is concluded to appoint Wm. A. Thomas, John Scott, Richard H. Thomas, Richard M. Janney, John P.
Balderson, Bond Valentine, Wm. Waring, John Gande, Hugh Balderson and Francis J. King, in connection with a similar Committee of our Women's Meeting, to visit some of our Subordinate Meetings, as may may seem, to attend, to labor in the service and to extend such help and encouragement as ability may be received to impart. They are directed to report to our next Yearly Meeting.

They adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
About the hour adjourned to Friends assembled.

The Committee appointed at a former sitting to report if way opened for it, the names of two suitable Friends to fill the vacancies reported in this Meeting's representation in the Meeting for Sufferings, offered the names of Joseph P. Hopkins and James Carey, which being considered and united with and they are appointed accordingly. The Clock is directed to furnish that Meeting with a copy of this minute. The Committee to settle the Treasurer's account made the following report which was satisfactory and our Subordinate Meetings are directed to raise the sum therein named, and pay it to the Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting.

The Committee of the Yearly Meeting, appointed to examine and settle the Treasurer's account, report that they have attended to their duties.
They find that all the quotas have been paid in, and the accounts and vouchers correct, showing a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of one hundred and thirty-three dollars and sixty-five cents.

The Committee
recommend the sum of sixty dollars to be raised for the present year.

Baltimore, 10th month 25th, 1852.

last year to meet in conference with similar Committees of other Yearly Meetings, on the general interests of Society, made the following report which was read together with the report adopted by the conference and addressed to the several Yearly Meetings. It was acceptable to us and the Committee is released.

To the Yearly Meeting
The Committee continued last year to confer with similar Committees of other Yearly Meetings upon the general interests of Society and to unite with them in such labor for the restoration of love and unity, as the truth might lead into, report, that all our members except two met in conference, Committees of New York, North Carolina and Indiana Yearly Meetings in this City, in the 5th month last, and after a time of solid deliberation upon the interesting concern committed to our charge, we were favored to unite in a report to our respective Yearly Meetings which is herewith submitted to the Meeting.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,
William A. Thomas,
Joseph King, Jr.
