

at 3 1/2 O'clock to-morrow afternoon.

25th of the Month and 5th of the week.

At the hour adjourned to, Friends assembled.

The Committee set apart at a previous sitting to prepare essays of endorsement to be placed on the Certificates and minutes of our brethren and Sisters in attendance at this Meeting, produced them; they were considered, approved, and the clerks were directed to endorse them accordingly.

The joint Committee of Men and Women Friends who were appointed to consider the relation in which we are placed towards the Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, and to prepare a communication to that Meeting if way should open for it, reported that after full and free consideration of the subject, they had united in preparing an Epistle to that Meeting.

It was now read and approved, and the Clerk was directed to transcribe, sign and forward it.

Thomas R. Matthews on behalf of the Committee, to hand the London General Epistle reprinted, reported that the service had been performed, and the Representatives were requested to take charge of their respective propositions, and also of the books received from the Meeting for sufferings.

Essays of Epistles to our brethren of other Yearly Meetings were now produced by the Committee. They were read, and with some alteration, approved. The Clerk is directed to transcribe, sign and forward them.

And now as all the business which has come before us, has been brought to a satisfactory and harmonious conclusion, and we are about to separate and return to our homes, we desire reverently to acknowledge the belief that our several sittings have been graciously favored by a precious sense of the Lord's presence, solemnizing our minds, and qualifying us for acceptable service in the Church. That it has been a season of renewed visitation to not a few of our members, to the awakening of some, and the edification and encouragement of very many. We have felt that it has been good for us to have been here. Desiring to be truly thankful for the blessings vouchsafed, unworthy as we are of the least of them. The Meeting concludes, to meet at the usual time next year, if the Lord permit.

Richard H. Thomas
Clerk to the Meeting this year.
