

377 The Clerk of the Yearly Meeting of Ministers and Elders informed that our beloved friend Richard A. Thomas had been liberated to attend London Yearly Meeting and for other religious services within its limits. Jos King, J. John Scott, Hugh Calderston and Wm A. Thomas are appointed to order such care and assistance as may be necessary in the prosecution of his concern.

The Meeting being informed that three vacancies existed in its representation in the Meeting for Sufferings Hugh Calderston, John Scott, Wm A. Thomas, John B. Cressshaw and Aaron A. Griffith are appointed to propose to our next Meeting suitable names to fill vacancies if way should open for it. Then adjourned to 3 o'clock to morrow afternoon.

23^d of the month and 15th of the week pursuant to adjournment Friends met.

The minutes of the Meeting for Sufferings were read and approved.

The committee appointed at a former sitting to prepare Essays of orders sent to be placed on their certificates and minutes of Brethren and Sisters in attendance from other Yearly Meetings produced them they were read and approved and the Clerks are directed to furnish them accordingly.

The committee to propose names to fill the vacancies in the Meeting for Sufferings offered the names of John B. Cressshaw, John A. Williamson and Jesse Tyson which being considered and approved of they are appointed to the service and the Clerk is directed to furnish that Meeting with a copy of this Minute.

The committee to have the London General Epistle reprinted for distribution report that it has been done. Their representatives are directed to take charge of them for their respective Meetings.

Essays of Epistles to our Brethren sent to other Yearly Meetings were produced by the committee and being read and approved they are directed to be transcribed signed and forwarded.

Having come up to our annual Assembly under feelings of great weakness and unworthiness we have now to acknowledge with grateful hearts that the Lord has not been unmindful of us but has condescended to refresh our souls together and enabled us from day to day to transact the business that has been before us in much love and unity and under a measure of that precious feeling the Meeting concluded to convene at the usual time next year if the Lord permit.
