

407 The following Report was received from the Committee to visit our Subordinate Meetings, and the members Comprising them

It was approved of, and they were continued to further service as way may open.

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

The Committee appointed last year to extend advice and assistance to the Subordinate Meetings, and the members Comprising them, Report:

In 12th month last, part of our Committee attended the Quarterly Meeting of Cunnings' Creek, the Monthly Meetings Comprising it, and visited most of the families belonging thereto, and endeavored to render such advice and assistance as circumstances seemed to require, and qualifications experienced to give.

In the first month last past, four of our member attended Cedar Creek Monthly Meeting of Virginia held in Richmond and visited most of the members belonging to it.

The Meeting was held to good satisfaction, and the Committee rendered them such advice and assistance as circumstances appeared to require and ability was rendered to impart.

The Committee, after mature deliberation in relation to the objects of their appointment, feel willing to submit to the consideration of the Yearly Meeting the propriety of continuing the Committee for further service.

Signed on behalf of the Committee

The minutes of our last Yearly Meeting were read -- The Committee to revise and record them, reported that the service had been attended to; they are continued to revise and record those of the present year, and report next year.

The minutes of the Meeting for Sufferings were read and approved.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

22^d of the month and 5th of the week According to adjournment, Friends met

The Epistle from our Friends of North Carolina Yearly Meeting, received since our last sitting, was acceptably read.

The Committee set apart at a previous sitting to prepare endorsements to be placed on the Certificates and Minutes of brethren in attendance produced them. They were considered, approved, and the Clerks were directed to endorse them accordingly.

The following Report from the Committee to examine and settle the Treasurer's account was read and approved, and our Subordinate Meetings were directed to raise the sum therein named, and pay it to the Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting.

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

We, the Committee appointed to examine and settle the Treasurer's account, have attended thereto, and find his statement and vouchers correct, showing a balance in his hands of thirty nine dollars and fifty five Cents, the quotas having all been paid in.

We propose that the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars be raised to meet the expenses of the Current year.

On behalf of the Committee
