

24th of the Month and 4th of the Year
 Friends met according to adjournment

A memorial of our late beloved friend, Richard H. Thomas, prepared by Baltimore Monthly Meeting and approved of by Baltimore Quarterly Meeting was received from the Meeting for Sufferings, with a minute informing us that it had been "carefully read in that Meeting, and fully and feelingly committed with." The reading of it at this time has, in the language of the Memorial, afresh brought the life and labors of our dear departed brother before us. "The humbleness of his mind, the childlike simplicity of his spirit, the depth and sincerity of his piety, his unquestioning faith, his unfaltering devotedness to the Saviour and his cause, and the singleness of his eye to the glory of God."

It was approved of and adopted by this Meeting, and the Committee on Printing was directed to have one thousand copies thereof reprinted for distribution.

The following Report from the Committee to Visit Subordinate Meetings was received and acceptably read. The Meeting was afresh intranced into feeling and sympathy with our members in their scattered locations and small Meetings and concluded to continue the Committee to further service as way may open for it and ability be received.

To the Yearly Meeting:

The Committee to Visit the Subordinate Meetings and the Members composing them, as way may open for it, Report:

That portions of the Committee attended the Yearly Year's Meeting of Virginia, at Mass Creek, Jennings Creek Quarterly Meeting at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, and the Monthly Meetings of Hopewell, Cedar Creek, Lower Virginia, Deer Creek and Centre. They also attended Meetings for worship in various parts of the Yearly Meeting and visited a number of families of Friends who do not reside within the limits of a Meeting.
