John C. Shinn, Clerk.

32. A proposition was received from Virginia & Calif. Year's Meeting, to hold our next Yearly Meeting in Richmond Va. which upon consideration, was not united with, but the desire was expressed that our Virginia and other visiting members may be assured that accommodations will be provided in Baltimore, for all who may come to Yearly Meeting, and that our Friends are encouraged to attend it.

31. Our coming together has been a season of divine favor in which the Lord has at times manifested himself to us. In separating, we desire to commemorate his goodness and mercy, and we have that his offer of Grace and Redemption may be accepted by many hearts.
