

Mary R. Ginnell and Julia Valentiny to nominate a suitable delegation to represent us at the next conference

Then adjourned to half-past three o'clock to morrow afternoon

24th of the month and 5th of the week

Friends met according to arrangement.

25. The Committee on the Interment of minutes submitted one which was united with, and the clerk was directed to place it upon the minutes of Friends in attendance.

26. The following report from the Finance Committee was read and approved, and the subordinate meetings were directed to raise their respective regulations, and pay them to Isaac Brooks Esq. Secretary.

To the Seaside Meetings

The Committee appointed to examine and settle the Treasurer's account report that they have attended to that service and find the accounts correct. There is at present in the hands of the Treasurer in Cash $512.17, and $2000 of Pittsburg and Cincinnati First Mortgage Rail Road Bonds. They recommend the sum of $3000 be raised the ensuing year.

On behalf of the Committee

Francis White

Baltimore 10th month 21. 1878

27. The Committee to nominate Friends to fill the vacancies in the Representative Meeting, procured by the death of Jonathan Lennick, and the resignation of Jos. S. Williamson, on account of ill health, reported Joshua & Washington and Thomas King, which were united with, and they were appointed members of that Meeting. Lucius was directed to furnish the Representative Meeting with a copy of this minute.

The Epistle Committee presented Epistles addressed to London, New York, Canada, New England, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Western Iowa and Kansas. They were read and apposed, and the club was directed to transcribe, sign and forward them.

27. By reports from our subordinate meetings it appeared that the number of persons whose ~~an~~ educating signs were as follows:

Baltimore Quarterly Meeting (3 of whom as is by medical advice 9.
Luminae Acc.

Sumner Act

Highland Half Year's Meeting
Total

Rock

Number of persons in Baltimore Sunday Meetings who were not in the habit of the daily reading of the Holy Scriptures in their Families

Baltimore Quarterly Meeting

Lummebeck.

Riptoria Half-Year

Total reported

Our meetings were requested to fix these important questions in remembrance, but they were released from making further reports.

35. The Committee to select delegates to the Educational Influence, nominated Francis A. Jones, James C. Thomas, James Carey, Joshua A. Hathington, Francis Mink,
Sarah C. Hathington, Susan B. Carey, Elizabeth S. Jones, Elizabeth J. Hopkins and Minnie Abby Thomas. The report was satisfactory, and the committee was authorized to fill vacancies, and add to their number, if any general to do so.

31. A change in the time of holding this meeting was considered, and the subject was referred to the following Committee, jointly with former Committee, to be reported upon next year, viz James C. Spornes, Francis P. Sing, Francis White, Geo. L. Southwick, Geo. A. Cook, Geo. W. Collier, John Tappan, John C. Lee, Geo. McCoy, Geo. W. Paul, John Pettus, Richard P. Rock, Edward S. Savory, Samuel S. Neave, Merritt Saviland and Joseph L. Valentine.

32. It is again our privilege to acknowledge that blessings and interest have marked the sessions of our meetings now about to close. May the Lord watch over us during the coming year in our homes and meetings, unite us in love to each other, give us the fellowship of believers, and qualify us for service.

The meeting adjourned to meet again next year, at the usual time and place, if the Lord permits.

Mr Francis T. King Clerk