19 The following Report from this Committee to attend the General Educational Conference was very satisfactory to us, for it gives a full evidence which it furnishes of increased general interest which is shown in the responsibility which rests upon us to give our children a thorough and general education. We also feel thankful for every opportunity which we have in our yearly meetings in a common work.

We commend this organization to the hearty support and co-operation of our members, and a vote of the appointment of the Yearly Meeting of a standing Committee on Education, as suggested in the Report, and the following friends were appointed to nominate one at our next sitting: E. J. Thomas, Secy. North, Joseph P. Elliott, Julia Talcott, Jane C. White and Mary W. Thomas.

To the Yearly Meeting.
The Committee to attend the General Educational Conference, report that such a Conference was held at Hartford, Conn. in the month of last and most of the members of the Conference were present.

It was a large and able body of educators and friends of education, representing all the Yearly Meetings of Friends in the United States.

It resulted in a permanent educational organization of three departments, Eastern, Central, Western. The stimulus given to education in all the Yearly Meetings by the Conference is already very marked. Indiana and Western Yearly Meetings have already united in the management of Earlham College. Penn College, Iowa has paid off its debt, and our College & boarding schools have opened this fall with an increase of students, & more qual effort in the cause of education.

We would propose that a standing Committee on education be appointed by this Yearly Meeting to look after the educational interests of our members, and represent us in any general educational work of the Society.

Anyone can become a member of the general association for the year, by the payment of one dollar to Miss W. Thomas, Treasurer, and large subscriptions in aid of general or special work are desired.

Francis T. King.

Miss W. Thomas.
