Susan R. Matthews, Treasurer

11th month 8th 1886.

An interesting public meeting was also held in the interests of the cause. The work of the Committee has been satisfactory to the Meeting. They were released at their own suggestion, and Richard H. Thomas, John Nicholson, Samuel R. Neave, Isaac H. Thompson, and John Prother together with a similar Committee of Women Friends were directed to propose to our next Meeting the names of Friends to form the Foreign Mission Committee for the next year.

19. The following report from a Committee appointed last year to consider the proposition of Iowa Yearly Meeting in reference to a Friends' Foreign Missionary Board, was read, and united with by the Meeting, and the Committee was released.

To Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Friends

Dear Friends:—Your Committee returned last year to report to this Meeting on the proposition of Iowa Yearly Meeting "in reference to the formation of a Friends' Foreign Missionary Board," are united in reporting that the way does not open for our Yearly Meeting to take any action thereon at this time.

On behalf of the Committee

John R. Cranshaw.

Julia Valentine

20. All the Queries were read, with the answers from the subordinate Meetings, and the following summary of answers agreed upon to represent the condition of our Meetings and Members.
