

A series of eight meetings was held in Tenth month, two members of the Pastoral Committee going up at that time. J. Randal Harris, and Helen B. Harris were acceptably engaged in the work at this time. A number of family visits were also paid. The members of the Pastoral Committee have organized and held several meetings.

Kochuall. Elizabeth L. Comstock and Hannah McNeil visited Kochuall in the Eleventh month of last year. They remained a week, holding meetings and visiting families. Rufus P. King also visited this meeting in Third month and held four appointed meetings in different churches, and six meetings at friends' houses. At the time of the Quarterly Meeting held at Kochuall in the Ninth month, a number of members of the Pastoral Committee from Baltimore, Ashton and Lincoln were in attendance. Two appointed meetings were held at Kochuall, one of them for children, one meeting at a church in Vinton, one at Berryville, and two at private houses. In Tenth month two members of the Pastoral Committee from Baltimore and Lincoln attended the regular First day morning meeting and Bible class, and paid some family visits.

Patuxent. - Rachel Marriage visited Patuxent Meeting in the Eleventh month, and held one parlor meeting. Besides attending the regular meetings.

Dunning's Creek. - John P. Pennington visited Tuckertown in Fourth month and held three meetings. He also visited some families. Caroline E. Talbot, and two members of the Yearly Meetings Committee from Baltimore and Black Creek attended the Four Months Meeting in the Ninth month. Caroline E. Talbot remained in the neighborhood for four weeks holding meetings and visiting families. The members of the Pastoral Committee have organized, but have held no regular meetings.

Bellefonte. - Three members of the Pastoral Committee visited Bellefonte in the First month at the time of the Four Months Meeting and held two parlor meetings.

Rufus P. King visited Bellefonte in the Fourth month, remaining a week, and held two meetings. John P. Pennington spent several days at this place in the Fourth month, attending the regular meetings, and visiting all the families. He also held an appointed meeting. Two members of the Pastoral Committee spent two weeks at this place in Sixth month, visiting families and holding some parlor meetings.

Curwensville. - A member of the Pastoral spent several days at Curwensville, in the Second month and visited a number of families with three members of the committee belonging to that meeting. In Third month Rufus P. King visited this place and held two appointed meetings. He also visited Keokukdale and held a meeting.

John P. Pennington visited Curwensville in Fourth month, and paid a number of family visits. Two members of the Committee spent ten days at Curwensville in the Sixth month, attending the Four Months Meeting, and holding meetings every night for eight days. Many of the families were visited, and these meetings appointed outside of Curwensville. Dr. James E. Rhoads was acceptably engaged in the work on First and Second days.

Richmond. - Rufus P. King visited Richmond in First month for a few days. Elizabeth L. Comstock spent two weeks at Richmond in First and Second months, holding several meetings and visiting families. Two members of the Pastoral Committee went down on the 26th of Second month, remaining until Third month 3rd. Three appointed meetings were held and several Bible readings given, and a meeting held in the house of one of our members. One member of the committee attended the Half Year's Meeting held at Richmond in the Tenth month. The members of the Pastoral Committee have organized and held several meetings.

Cedar Creek. - Several visits have been paid to this meeting by a member of the Pastoral Committee from Richmond.