

136
An Epistle from y^r yearly Meeting of women friends at Philadelphia Dated y^r 18 of y^r 7th mo: 1739, was read in our Meeting to y^r Mutual Comfort and Refreshment of our Souls, and friends in General have Unity with it, also one sent to them from this Meeting, Dated the 28th of y^r 3rd mo: 1740

1741
At our yearly Meeting of women friends held at Westchester in y^r Province of Maryland y^r 16 of y^r 3rd mo: 1741 — after setting together to wait upon the Lord y^r Meeting proceeded to y^r inquiry of y^r State of y^r Several Meetings within y^r Virges of this Meeting — by accounts brought from y^r Several Meetings it appears that Meetings are constantly kept except y^r 4th Mo: where none appears to give account; tho some not so well attended as could be desired — by accounts brought from y^r quarterly Meeting on y^r Eastern Shore it appears that some meetings are constantly kept, for worship and Discipline others not so well as could be desired

Our friends Eliz^a Pleasant and Sarah Gilsons letters was read in our Meeting and friends have Unity with it
An Epistle from y^r yearly Meeting of women friends at Burlington for y^r Jerseys and Pennsylvania Dated the 24th of y^r 7th mo: 1740 — was read in this Meeting to our Mutual Comfort and Satisfaction

137
At our yearly Meeting of women friends held at Westchester the 4th Day of y^r 4th mo: 1742 — after setting together to wait upon the Lord y^r Meeting proceeds to inspect into y^r affairs of Each Meeting thereunto Belonging tho y^r same; but few friends being there this Meeting joins to y^r 3rd Day and proceeds to further inquiry — by accounts brought in we find, some meetings are constantly kept, and the Discipline put in Practice, some others are kept but not so well attended as could be desired — Dapsco lifts and Dutuxen as account

An Epistle from y^r yearly Meeting of women friends at Philadelphia, Dated y^r 23rd of y^r 7th mo: 1741 was read in this Meeting to our Mutual Comfort and Satisfaction

1743
At our yearly Meeting of women friends held at Westchester the 21st of y^r 3rd mo: 1743 — after setting together to wait upon the Lord this Meeting proceeds to inspect into Each Particular meeting thereunto belonging — by accounts brought in from y^r Several Meetings belonging to this yearly Meeting it appears, that they are in Substance, and that Meetings are pretty well attended and that Love and Unity subsists amongst friends, except some Meetings from which we have no account
The Epistle from y^r yearly Meeting of women friends held at Burlington for Pennsylvania and New Jersey from y^r 18 to y^r 22 of y^r 1st mo: 1742 was read and well approved of and was answered by this Meeting