

No further business offering this Meeting Adjourns to the next Yearly Meeting to be held at Freshhaven on the Eastern shore.

1763

At our Yearly Meetings of Women Friends held at West River the 25th of the 5 Month 1763 —

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeds to the business thence belonging —

The Representatives being called they all appeared for the Western shore but those that was hindered by Indisposition of Body —

By account from the Quarterly Meeting which was now produced in Writing and read it appears that Meetings for Worship and Discipline are kept up but it appears that Weekly Meetings are not well attended as could desire, that Love and Unity in a good degree, Subsists among Friends, and a care remains on the minds of Faithfull Friends to put the Discipline in Practice, and the Quaker Recommendation by the Yearly Meeting was read in this Meeting and repeated

In French to in Writing but not so satisfactory as the friends could desire, and a care remains to provide for the poor Widows and Orphans: Epistle from Philadelphia was read in this Meeting to good Satisfaction. This Meeting Appoints Marguerite Starns, Ann Thomas Junior and

Mary Stummer to answer the aforesaid Epistle

No further business offering this Meeting Adjourns till second day morning 9 o'clock —

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeds to what business may thence occur —

No business presenting this Meeting Adjourns till fourth day morning Nine o'clock —

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeds to what business may thence occur —

The Representatives being called they all appeared for the Western shore but those that was hindered by Indisposition of Body —

From the Eastern shore no account, and we understand by Friends present that there was an account prepared, This Meeting Appoints Sarah Mavin and Hannah Roden to Enquire the reason it was not sent, And make report to the next Yearly Meeting to be held at Choptank. Those friends that was appointed to answer the Epistle produced one which was approved and signed —

No further business offering this Meeting Adjourns to the next Yearly Meeting to be held at Freshhaven on the Eastern shore —

At our Yearly Meeting of Women Friends held at West River the 8th day of the 6th Month 1764 —