

that meeting for worship and Discipline is constantly kept in their appointed seasons and the business thereof transacted in a good degree of Love and Condescension, and where things appear amiss care still remains on the mind of a Remnant, that the Discipline might be put in Practice, and we hope Friends may more and more be concerned for that good Order, Love and Unity we believe abounds among us. And there still remains a care concerning the poor amongst us. The Quaker recommended by the Yearly Meeting was Read and Answer'd to in Writing.

The Representatives from Chester Quarterly Meeting on the Continent when being called none appeared by an account sent it appears that their Quarterly and Monthly Meetings for worship and Discipline have been constantly kept on the same appointed and pretty well attended by some and by accounts from their several Weekly Meetings. It appears that they for the most part been kept up by some but with various care to observe the two Principles of many in attending weekly meetings. Love and Unity in a good degree subsists among Friends, and where things appear to be amiss, some care is taken to put the Discipline in Practice against Offenders. We also acquaint you that we was favoured with the company of our Friend Susannah Lightfoot and desire that whose Labour of love was to good Satisfaction to us. We received an Epistle from the Yearly Meeting at Philadelphia which was Read to the Satisfaction and Comfort of the Meeting. This Meeting appoints Mary Broder and Sarah Sumner to Answer the aforesaid Epistle.

No further Business offering this Meeting adjourns till Second day Morning Eight o'clock.

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeded to what Business may come before it.

The Representatives being called they all but one appeared.

No further Business offering this Meeting adjourns till Third day after Meeting of Worship.

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeded to what Business may offer.

The Representatives being called they all appeared but no Business offering. A very good Advice was given to the Satisfaction of the Meeting. This Meeting adjourns till tomorrow Morning nine o'clock.

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeded to what Business may be offered.

Representatives being called they all appeared. A Friend that was appointed to Answer the Epistle from Philadelphia