

Produced one which was Read Approved of and Signed, Ann Thomas and Mary Plummer ^{is appointed} to Transcribe it and send it to the Yearly meeting at Philadelphia and to send copies of the Epistle to the Quarterly and Monthly meetings and to make report to the next Yearly meeting.

No further business Offering this meeting Adjourns till the next Yearly meeting to be held at Tread Haven on the Eastern Shore.

At our Yearly meetings of Women Friends held at West River the 7th of the 5th month 1766.

This meeting met according to adjournment and Proceeded to what business may thereto Occur.

The Representatives being Called they all appeared but three with accounts from our several Quarterly meetings which was Produced in writing and Read that our Quarterly meetings for Worship and Discipline have been Constantly kept on their appointed times and fully attended and the business thereof Transacted in a good Degree of Love and Concordance, when any thing appears amiss can be made on a Motion to put the Discipline in Practice for amendment, and Gunpowder report adds that the Lucaris recommended by the Yearly meeting was Read in their Quarterly meeting and Answered to in writing to good Satisfaction, care is taken of the Poor.

An Epistle from the Yearly meeting at Philadelphia was Read in this meeting to good Satisfaction, and the meeting Appoints Ann Thomas Anna Robertson and Mary Plummer to Answer the aforesaid Epistle.

No further business Offering this meeting adjourns
till fourth day morning nine a Clock.

This meeting met according to adjournment and proceeded to business ^{that} may thereto Occur.

The Representatives being Called they all but three appeared of them being Disappointed by sickness the third by unexpected Disappointment which she was very sorry for.

Those Friends that was appointed to answer the Epistle from Philadelphia Produced one which was approved of and signed.

Ann Thomas Junior and Mary Plummer is appointed to Transcribe it and send it to the Yearly meeting at Philadelphia and also to send a Copy of the