

This Meeting Appoints Ann Thomas Junior and Mary

Plummer to send a copy of the Epistle from Philadelphia to our Quarterly and monthly meetings and to make report thereof to our next yearly meeting to be held at Seabrook on the Eastern Shore.

This Meeting Appoints Ann Thomas Junior and Mary

Plummer to send the Epistle to the yearly meeting at Philadelphia also to correct the Minutes of the yearly meeting and to get them transcribed.

The Business about removing the half year meeting from Chester to Seabrook is referred to the yearly meeting at Seabrook on the Eastern Shore.

No further business offering this meeting Adjourns till the next yearly meeting to be held on the Eastern Shore.

At our yearly Meeting of Woman Friends held at West River the 21st of the 5th Month 1768.

This Meeting met according to appointment, and proceeded to what Business may come before it.

The Representatives being called they all appeared but two who sent their reasons, which were satisfactory to the Meeting.

The Friends that were appointed by the yearly meeting

Meeting at Third Haven to send Copies of the Philadelphia Epistle to their Quarterly and Monthly Meetings, have complied with that appointment; and those Friends that were appointed by the last Yearly Meeting at West River to correct the Minutes of the Yearly Meeting and to get them Recorded, have complied with their appointment and lodged the Book at Philip Thomas's.

The Account from our Quarterly Meeting was produced in Writing and Read.

Meetings for Worship and Discipline have been constantly kept on the lines since the last Account, and the Business conducted in a good degree of Christian Order. When things appear amiss, care is taken for amendment. Love and Unity in a good degree subsists amongst Friends. Gunpowder Report ^{the} the Quaker recommended to us by the yearly Meeting had been read in their Meeting and Answered in Writing.

An Epistle from Philadelphia was read in this Meeting to the great satisfaction thereof; And this Meeting appoints Ann More, Rebecca Richardson, and Mary Marther to Answer the aforesaid Epistle.

No further Business offering, this Meeting Adjourns till the next day Morning Nine o'Clock.

This Meeting met according to Adjournment and proceeded to what Business may therein occur.

The Representatives being called they all appeared but two who sent their reasons which were satisfactory to this Meeting.

Those Friends that were appointed to Answer the aforesaid Epistle produced one which was read, approved off and signed.

This Meeting appoints Ann Thomas and Mary Plummer to transcribe the Epistle and send it to Philadelphia; and also to send