attended with the following report

That these Quarterly & monthly meetings hath been constantly kept on their appointed seasons the business there of transacted in Love & concordance where things appear among some care has been taken to put the Discipline in practice, by accounts from our different preparative meetings it appears that our first day meetings hath been constantly kept up & generally pretty well attended but those on other days of the week much neglected by many the Queries with answers thereto were ~~read~~ read in this meeting and friends care is extended towards the Poor, Those friends that were appointed by our last yearly meeting to send Copies of the Epistle from Philadelphia to each Quarterly meeting report they performed that business, this meeting then adjourned till second day after meeting of worship
