

& judgment that the age of twenty one for Males, &
Eighteen for Females ought to be strictly observed.

~~Resolved that the age of twenty one for Males, &
Eighteen for Females ought to be strictly observed.~~ 1785
Some weighty considerations having arisen & been spread in this meeting, concerning the importance of strict justice being duly attended to, on account of the Africans & their Posterity formerly in Slavery by many of us, & of late years set at Liberty, in regard to Christian instruction Education & Treatment towards the youth of that Race, as well as the circumstances of those more advanced in years which it is desired may have place amongst us, & the weight of the subject rest on the minds of friends now assembled, that when we return to our several meetings we may be enabled to impress on the minds of our Brethren & Sisters a close consideration of what may be called for at our hands in regard to this People in consequence of our high Profession of Justice & Equity.