

and a care remains on the minds of faithfull friends to put the Discipline in practis

The Lucies Recommended by the Yearly Meeting was read in their Meeting Separately answered to in writing but not so Satisfactory as the faithfull could desire and a care remains to provide for the poor widows and Orphins

An Epistle from Philadelphia was read in this meeting to good Satisfaction this Meeting Appoints Margaret Harris Ann Thomas Junier and Mary Plummer to answer the aforesaid Epistle

This Meeting Adjourns to Second Day Morning at the Ninth hour no business presenting this meeting adjourns till fourth Day Morning at Ninth hour

This meeting well according to Appointment the representatives being called all appeared for the Western Shore but those that was hindered by Indisposition

From the Eastern Shore no Account and we understand by friends present that there was an Account prepared this Meeting Appoints Sarah Reason and Hannah Budden to Enquire the reason it was not sent and make report to the next Yearly meeting to be held at Treadaven no farther business offering this Meeting Adjourns to the next Yearly meeting on the Eastern Shore

At a Yearly meeting of women friend held at Treadaven meeting house the 20 Day of the 10 Month 1764

The representatives for the Quarterly meeting at West River Rebecca Richardson Mary Plummer Ann Thomas Junier and Sarah Gover

The representatives for the Eastern Shore Quarterly meeting Sarah Reason Hannah Budden Sarah Browning Rachel Lamb Habel Vanant Mary Kemp Mary Bartlett and Lydia Register by accounts it appears that their monthly and Quarterly meetings are constantly kept and affairs there of carried on in love