

and meetings for worship are kept for the most part but by small numbers on week days with a degree of love and unity among friends and where things appear amiss there is a care on the minds of the faithful that Discipline be put in practice

At a Yearly Meeting of women friends held at Fredaven Meeting house 19 of 10 Mo 1765 The representatives for West River Quarterly meeting Rebecca Richardson Sarah Morris and Mary Plummer

The representatives for the Eastern Shore Elizabeth Neale Margaret Hull Sarah Refson and Ann Refson

By accounts it appears that meetings for Discipline have been constantly kept and the business thereof carried on in love and that meetings for worship are kept for the most part and some of them well attended with love and unity among friends and where things are amiss care is taken for amendment This meeting adjourns till Second Day after meeting of worship is over 21 of 10 Month this meeting met according to appointment the representatives being called all appeared

There was an Epistle from Philadelphia read in this meeting to Satisfaction

This meeting adjourns to forth Day at the 10 hours this meeting met according to appointment this meeting appoints Mary Dickenson and Ann Cox to transcribe the Philadelphia Epistle and send it to the Quarterly meeting

We have been favoured at this meeting with the company of our well esteemed friends Thomas Chalton Isaac Andrews Joshua Browne Esther White Am Gant and Hannah Foster whose labour of love was to Edification and Comfort

This meeting adjourns to the Usual time at West River