

At a yearly meeting of women friends held at Thirskhaven the 7th of sixth month 1788

The Representatives appointed to attend the Service of this Meeting from the Western Quarter ^{one} Rachel, Matthew, Elizabeth Brooke Jane Wilson, Mary Burgess, Martha Carey, Mary Brown, Rebecca Williams, Lucy Mitchell and from the Eastern Shore are Capendine Corn Rachel Lamb, Rebecca Stewart, Ann George, Elizabeth Tavenport, Ruth Mearns, Ann Powell, Elizabeth Sherwood, Elizabeth Wainwright and Sarah Berry jun^r who being called ~~where~~ all present ^{The names were read in this Meeting and written on papers}
^{which} ~~the names were read in this Meeting and written on papers~~ produced from our several Quarterly Meetings ~~in~~ ^{answers to it} ~~the names were read in this Meeting and written on papers~~ nearly as follows: That Meetings for Worship and Discipline have been kept up, except seven ^{Days} ~~Days~~ on the Western Shore one of which a preparative Meeting ^{which is} said to be occasioned by high Waters and Difficult riding, and three ~~Days~~ in one of the small meetings on the Eastern Shore. Both reports ~~reports~~ Intimate a Care in other respects, except some Instances of Irregularity, and Inattention to the Hour, that Love and unity is in a good degree maintained, tho a more general Care to Experience an Increase thereof they acknowledge would be profitable, the report from the Eastern Shore adds, that some care is taken to Discourage tale bearing and to end Differences when any appear—Some Care in the Education of youth is Express'd, yet a more General Care in Parents &c it is acknowledged would be profit-
-ble to the youth and one report acknowledges too much Indul-gence to be apparent—A general Care is Express'd respecting the Particulars mentioned in the 4th Query, yet that in some