

A printed Epistle from the Yearly Meeting held in London by adjournments from the 14th of the 1st Mo. to the 25th of the 5th Mo. inclusive 1790 was read in this Meeting & the Advice it contains therein was to satisfaction

Hannah Matthews is appointed to assist the Clerk in drawing up a summary of the Reports to produce at a future sitting of this Meeting: under a sense of the extendings of the divine canopy the Meeting adjourns to the 10th Hour to morrow morning.

At the 13th of the Mo. & 4th of the Clerk near the time adjourns to friends assemble & after a solemn pause proceeded to business Representatives being called were all present as heretofore except Ruth Bane who was prevented by indisposition

The State of Society as brought up in the Reports from the Quarterly Meetings was ~~read~~ ^{renewed} again taken into consideration ~~the~~ ^{which} Reports being of the same many things being read & after considerable proquest ^{made therein} ~~these~~ ^{many} Many Mighty and Solid Truths were delivered tending to stir up friends to a search for themselves and others into the Cause of Complaints that are now brought up in the summary ~~Reports~~ ^{which are as follows}

That all our Meetings for Worship and Discipline are generally attended by Many friends who of the Members ~~of~~ a remembrance appears in most places in the attendance of them on other days of the Week the House mostly observed each report intimates that with respect to Slaves it is still affliction prevalent over some One Report notes that there are some deficiencies in a becoming Deportment in Meetings which are under care but that in the general they are guarded against

That Love and Unity are generally Maintained in a good degree amongst a considerable number of reason to believe that the Love which becomes the followers of Christ has need of Increase among us at home It has rests on the Many Indiscreet Minds of many Friends to discourage Tale bearing Back biting and Spreading of Evil Reports but a fear is expressed that all are not quite so careful in those Respects
