

Philadelphia, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, and Carolina Yearly Meetings produced essays, also one addressed to our sisters of the Yearly Meeting of London, which were read, approved, and directed to be signed by the clerk

23^d of the month and 6th of the week.
At the time appointed friends assembled.

The committee appointed, produced an essay of an endorsement to be placed on the minutes of friends, which was approved and directed to be signed by the clerk on behalf of this meeting.

The treasurers of the meeting having remained with those of the separation, Dorothy Hopkins and Elizabeth Robinson were appointed to that service; and the sum of 20 dollars received from Baltimore Quarterly meeting was directed to be placed in their hands.

The clerk was directed to furnish the Quarterly meetings with copies of the

Epistles addressed to us, also with a copy of the following minute signed on behalf of this meeting. viz:

On the state of society being brought before us, the meeting was introduced into deep exercise on account of the many deviations from the path of simplicity into which our primitive friends were led, and on which account many of them suffered unto death.

The call has been extended to every department of society to be more vigilant; to watch and be sober, lest the enemy of all righteousness rob us of that peace, which he who wore the seamless garment promised to his disciples: and as we believe that a thorough conviction of our principles will lead into great circumspection of conduct, and fearful walking before God; we feel it our duty to call the attention of our dear sisters to an examination of themselves; and query, am I faithfully discharging those duties which devolve upon me or am I bringing reproach upon that profession for which
