

noticed in the attendance of our mid week meetings, and friends were earnestly recommended not to neglect "the assembling of themselves together" for the purpose of divine worship remembering the expression of the royal prophet "God forbid that I should offer a sacrifice unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing"

The importance of a more frequent perusal of the Holy scriptures in friends families was renewedly felt & Mothers and daughters were tenderly exhorted to cultivate an increasing acquaintance with the inspired writings

The situation of the African race in friends families claimed the attention of the meeting, and a solicitude was felt that these might not be found wanting in needful care in promoting their education & comfort

First Summary

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been attended; those on first day mornings by most of our members in unity with us. other meetings sometimes small. Unbecoming behaviour therein guarded against, and the hour of meeting nearly observed

Second Summary

Love and unity appears to be maintained by friends generally becoming our christian profession; tale bearing and detraction discouraged, when differences arise endeavours are used to end them

Third Summary

Some friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel; to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world; also to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy scriptures

Fourth Summary

Generally clear respecting the several particulars of this Query