

sisters from other yearly meetings which with their company and gospel labours were acceptable.

Ann Waterhouse and Elizabeth Scott were appointed to write with men friends in preparing an essay of endowment to be placed on the certificates & minutes of friends in attendance.

The friends appointed to assist in collecting & recording the minutes of last year reported that they had attended thereto. Jane King, Elizabeth Robertson, and Sarah Hopkins, were named to the service for the present year.

Sarah Sands, & Mary Wright, were appointed to adjust the Treasurers account and report to a future sitting.

Adj^d to 10 o'clock to morrow morning
9th of the week and 1st of the month

The meeting entered upon the state of society & proceeded through the queries & the respective answers from our Quarters. During the consideration of the important subjects thus brought before us the dear young people were affectionately exhorted, to become the cross bearing followers of a crucified Lord. that they might be in the end of their race blessed with evidence of acceptance, which is the glorious reward for long, long life of sacrifice and suffering. - Neglect of the attendance of meetings in the middle of the week was a subject of painful regrets, and an ardent desire felt that we might withdraw from the cumbering cares of this world, and assemble with the two or three and taste for our selves that the Lord is good. A feeling concern was also expressed that those who were made stewards over much might be introduced into sympathy with such as would be made more comfortable by a little pecuniary aid.
