

difference of sentiment upon important points, and without which all our performances will be but imaginary duties - a belief has also been expressed that the possession of this badge of discipleship would lead to the faithful attendance of our religious meetings. A tender solicitude has been felt that we may embrace every suitable opportunity of ameliorating the condition of the African race regarding them as the objects - equally with ourselves, of the hope and blessings of the Gospel.

1st Answer.

All our meetings for worship and discipline (except one noticed in the report from Nottingham) have been attended, those on first day mornings by the greater part of our members, afternoon and week day meetings sometimes small, unbecoming behaviour ~~being~~ avoided and the hour generally observed.

2nd Ans.

Love appears to be maintained by many friends becoming our christian profession tale-bearing and detraction discouraged & when differences arise care is taken to end them.

3rd Ans.

Some friends are careful by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel. Endeavours are used to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world and to promote the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures.
