

ward the subject to the Yearly meeting for its consideration which was united with by the meeting and the clerk was directed to send it in our report accordingly. Hannah Hoge, Dorothy Hopkins, Hannah Hopkins, Grace Worthington and Elizabeth Scott, were appointed to unite with men's committee in the further consideration of the subject and report their sense to a future sitting.

30th of the month and 3rd of the week agreed to adjournment the meeting gathered.

The meeting entered upon the state of society and proceeded as far as the 8th query and then adjourned to meet at 3 O'clock this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment the meeting gathered.

The four remaining queries and their respective answers were read: in reviewing the state of society renewed ability was furnished in the love of the Gospel to administer suitable counsel and admonition. Parents were exhorted to greater diligence in ordering their households after them. The daily practice of convening their families for the reading of the Holy Scriptures was affectionately recommended, and living testimonies borne to the efficacy of this Christian duty, and the acceptableness of it in the Divine sight.

The dear young ^{friends} were encouraged to yield unreserved obedience to the manifestations of truth upon their own minds, being willing to deny themselves, take up their cross daily that thus they may become fruitful in the fields of offering and joyful in the house of prayer. Those who set in solitary places feeling "as the Pelican in the wilderness or as the sparrow on the housetops" were encouraged to rely upon Him who seek in secret and who will assuredly as he is approached in humble faith graciously answer their petitions, supply their needs, and qualify them for an admission into that City whose walls are salvation and whose gates are praise.

meeting adjourned to 11 O'clock tomorrow morning.
