

The meeting entered into the state of Society & exhibited by the reports from our Quarterly Meetings & proceeded through the Queries & their respective answers and during the serious consideration of the subjects thus brought into view the attention of friends was collected to the solemn obligation of a diligent attendance of our meetings, believing that a neglect of this important duty, laid the foundation for deficiencies in all our Queries - a belief was also expressed that a blessing would rest upon the practice of waiting on the Lord morning by morning for a renewal of strength before the avocations of the day are engaged in - & the necessity of Mother's abiding under the power of the cross in their own hearts & manifesting in their daily walk the example of death in dwelling of spirit - as well as the importance of early instruction in the path of self denial was affectionately set forth

1st Summary - All our meetings (excepting an indulgent meeting noticed in the report from Nottingham for which a satisfactory answer was assigned) have been held & there on first day morning & for discipline generally well attended - afternoons & week day meetings often small unless coming between them usually avoided & the hour nearly observed

2nd Summary - Love appears to be maintained by most friends, becoming our Christian profession, told bearing & detraction discouraged & when differences arise care is taken speedily to end them.

3rd Summary - Many friends are concerned by example & precept to educate their children & those under their care in plainness of speech deportment & apparel, to guard them against the reading pernicious books & from the corrupt conversation of the world, also to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures -

4th Summary - Our testimony against the unnecessary use of spirituous liquors &
