

attendance of our religious meetings and be clothed with that spirit of love, which remains to be the badge of discipleship.

1st Summary

All our Meetings for worship & discipline have been generally well attended, no unbecoming behaviour to remark and the hour mostly observed

2nd Summary

Many friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession, and are concerned to discourage tale bearing and detraction in differences amongst us.

3rd Summary

We believe many friends are concerned to comply with the first part of the query, also to guard their children against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world and to encourage them frequently to read the holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

Our testimony against distillation

spirituous liquors, is maintained and we believe friends are mostly dear with regard to the latter part of the query.

5th Summary

No poor amongst us requiring aid and the school education of children coming under the notice of friends has been attended to.

6th Summary

Friends generally appear to be dear in respects the several particulars of the query.

7th Summary

As far as appears friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to comply with the requisitions of the latter part of the query.

8th Summary

With one exception (which is an exception) friends are careful to bear a testimony against Slavery and to provide suitably for those of the African race in their families, and some care is taken to instruct them in useful learning.