

It was while men slept that the enemy found time, and we fully believe that it never was more necessary to attend to the preparation of our Blessed Redeemer. Watch and pray continually lest ye enter into temptation. We earnestly desire that the excellent counsel and admonition administered at this time to the different classes among us may not pass away as the morning cloud or as the early dew but all may be strengthened to work diligently in the vineyards of their own hearts, to pursue those things that are most excellent and that accompany salvation.

1st Summary

It appears that all our meetings for worship and discipline have been attended by the greater part of our members, unbecoming behaviour there mostly avoided with the exception of drowsiness noticed in one of the reports.

2 Summary

Friends generally maintain love towards each other bearing our Christian professions and are concerned to discourage tale bearing and detractions, yet deficiencies are apparent in these important particulars - No differences known among us.

3 Summary

Most friends endeavour to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel to guard them against reading pernicious books & from the corrupt conversation of the world and they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures yet we believe more care in these respects would be profitable.

4th Summary

We believe our testimony against distilled spirituous liquors is maintained and that friends are careful to comply with the
