The joint committee of men and women friends, to whom was referred, again, the report produced by them in regard to Virginia Yearly Meeting, having had the subject anew under their consideration were united in presenting the following report as the result of their deliberations. — Which was read; and approved of by this meeting Lydia Valentine, Sarah Sands, Grace Worthington, Hannah Hopkins, Dorothy Hopkins, Tacy & King

Ann Schofield, and Hannah Ballou, were appointed to attend Virginia Yearly meeting ~~next year~~ in conjunction with men's committee and in case that meeting should approve of the proposed arrangements and resolve itself at that time into a half year's meeting. The said committee are to attend the opening and sittings and report of their case herein to our next Yearly Meeting.

To the Yearly meeting
The joint committee of men & women friends, appointed on the interesting and important proposition contained in the minute received from Virginia Yearly Meeting. Report: that having conferred with that portion of the committee appointed by Virginia Yearly Meeting, now in attendance with us, on the subject of its being suspended and constituted a half year's meeting, to be joined to our Yearly Meeting, we are united in believing ^{that such a measure} would be proper. The half year's meeting to have the same powers and privileges as a Quarterly Meeting, and to be held at such time and place or places as friends at their next Yearly Meeting
