12th Summary.

Friends appear careful as far as practicable to place their children for tuition under the care of teachers in membership with us.

The London general epistle was acceptably read, and we desire the excellent counsel contained therein, especially on the subject of education may be treasured up.

Adjourned to 4 o'clock this afternoon.

According to adjournment meeting gathered.

The following extract from the minutes of North Carolina Yearly Meeting was brought into this meeting by men Friends.

To Baltimore Yearly Meeting
Dear Friends

The difficulty to which travelling friends and others are subjected, who wish to attend your Yearly Meeting and ours, being brought to view in this meeting, occasioned an examination whether we could change the time of holding our meeting, but having a distant Quarterly meeting whose members have to pass a mountainous road, it would be difficult for them to be any later in the season. It would also occasion an alteration in the time of holding several Quarterly Meetings. We therefore ask, if it would in any way suit your convenience to change the time of holding yours, so as to enable distant friends who wish to attend both Yearly Meetings to do so.

Extracted from the minutes of North Carolina Yearly Meeting held at New Garden, Guilford Co. from the 6th to the 10th of 11th mo. 1843. ^{James H. Hall}
Elizabeth Scott, Hannah Hoag, Margaret Cheston, Sarah Sands, Elizabeth Robertson, Anne Washington, Susanna Ballance, Anne Howell, Eliza Thomas and Elizabeth M. Parsons, were appointed to unite with a committee from men's meeting in considering the subject.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.
