

Epistles from London, New England, New York, Philadelphia, Indiana, and North Carolina were received and read.

These evidences of religious fellowship have been like the precious ointment upon the head of Aaron that went down to the skirts of his garments: and renewed desires have been felt that we might be preserved in the unity of the spirit which is the bond of peace.

Sarah Sands, Elizabeth Scott, Hannah Hoge, Dorothy Hopkins, Hannah Hopkins, Clarissa Fussell, Elizabeth Miller, Anne Worthington, Mary Ann Fowler, Margaret Cheston, Marianne Fowler, Ann Howell, Hannah Bates, Elizabeth Jolliffe, Mary Ladd, Esther Hopkins, Grace Worthington & Hannah Talbot, were appointed to address the Yearly Meetings in correspondence with us as way may open, and produce their essays at a future sitting.

Our beloved friends Susan R. Smith and Sibyl Jones with several brethren from neighbouring Yearly Meetings produced certificates and minutes from their respective meetings which were read, and with their company and labors of love have been acceptable to us.

Dorothy Hopkins, Rachel Hopkins, Anna Worthington, and Elizabeth Miller are appointed to unite with a committee from men's meeting to prepare an endorsement to be placed on the certificates and minutes of Friends now in attendance and report at a future sitting.

The representatives are desired to stop at the close of this meeting to consider of, and propose two friends to serve as clerks for the present year.

Adjourned to to-morrow this afternoon.

According to adjournment friends met. Dorothy Hopkins reported on behalf of the representatives that on conferring together they had agreed to propose Hannah Talbot, for clerk and Mary Ann Fowler for assistant clerk, which is united with and they accordingly re-appointed.

The friends named to assist the clerks in correcting and recording the minutes attended thereto. Julia Thomas and
