

Sarah Ellicott are appointed to the service for the present year.

Sarah Sands and Elizabeth Robertson are appointed to examine the Treasurer's account and report at a future sitting.

Meeting adjourns to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, 21st of the month and 3rd of the week.

Near the time appointed meeting gathered.

The London general epistle has been read to the comfort and edification of many minds.

The meeting entered upon the state of society and proceeded as far as the 4th Query and we desire that the affectionate counsel and admonition which in gospel love have been given at this time; may be as the bread cast upon the water: found after many days.

Meeting adjourned to the same time next friends may this afternoon.

According to adjournment Friends assembled.

The remaining Queries with their answers from our subordinate meetings have been read. By these reports we have painfully to remark many deficiencies; which have called forth feelings of deep exercise, and the language of encouragement and exhortation has been offered. The practice of daily reading a portion of Holy Scripture has been tenderly recommended. As we read them under the influence of that spirit by which they were dictated, we shall realise the truth of Apostolic testimony that "they are profitable for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works;" thus shall we be enabled to apply them to our individual benefit, and manifest to the world that we are the disciples of Christ by the love we have one for another and be clothed with that charity which thinketh no evil; As we are attentive to the motions of grace we shall remember the poor and those who are in bonds, and fulfil the command to "do unto others even as you would they should do unto you."

1st Summary. All our meetings for worship and discipline have been attended; the most of the reports notice
